

This Week at Trinity English

Third Sunday of Easter | Thursday, May 1, and Sunday, May 5, 2019

Welcome to Trinity English

God's blessings to each of you! Activity bags are available at the doors for children—we always welcome your children to worship! A hearing loop is installed in both our Nave and Krauss Chapel and hearing assistance devices are available from an usher. If you are baptized you are welcome to communion. If you are seeking baptism, please speak with a pastor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

May Music Festival May 5th! — This Sunday we celebrate Trinity's annual May Music Festival at the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. services. At the conclusion of the academic year, it is a perfect way to acknowledge the importance of music as ministry. Thanks to all the volunteers (and their families) who share their time and talents to assist in the sharing of God's Word.

Hunger Envelopes — On the first Sunday of each month, Trinity English offers an additional envelope (the green one) to receive a dollar (or more) to help support our efforts in fighting hunger in our church community. Through Community Harvest food vouchers and referrals to other food banks, Trinity English helps to ensure families have enough to eat. Please feel free to utilize this envelope to help follow Jesus' directive to "feed my sheep."

Text To Give — Trinity English now has a few different ways for you to make financial gifts and offerings. First, you can "Text to Give" from any smartphone. Just text "TELC" to the number 206 (yes, that area code IS 2-0-6) 859-9405. You'll get a pop up form to fill in information from your bank account or credit card. You need only fill in this information one time, and then you can use that text option anytime you wish to make a one-time or recurring gift. ALSO: You still have the option to go online to make a one-time or recurring donation at TrinityEnglish.org/give

Annual Meeting May 19 — The congregation is invited to attend the Annual Meeting, Sunday, May 19, in Wagenhals Hall, following the 11 AM worship service. Included in the business will be the election of members to the Church Council. The Church Council has approved the following slate:
1st terms: Darlene Yarnelle, Turner Moshes, Laura Bohnke
2nd terms: Trina Gould Liggett, Travis Striggle, Debbie Woodroof
Filling an unexpired term: Mallory Shupe
And any nominations from the floor.

Thinking Out Loud — The next issue of Thinking Out Loud will be finding its way to your mailbox soon. This issue contemplates how we create community in our lives.

Parent Series — May 8th 5:45pm - 7:00pm with Ann Labenberg "Postpartum Depression: Be Informed Get Connected" Doors open 5:00pm for mingling & refreshments Room 101W trinityenglish.org for FAQs.

Trinity Theatre Performance — Join us May 29 from 6-8 for a curated performance called "Art and the Mind." This performance will deal with some of the difficulties of depression, and is recommended for audiences 16 and older. Following the performance there will be a discussion with professionals about the relationship between the art and mental health.

Art Display — As a part of Trinity's focus on May's Mental Health Awareness month, local artist Tiny Clementine will have her newest piece #PostYourPills on display throughout the month of May. Please take some time to explore this work on the Wagenhals side of the Nave.

Fridays in May — From 12:10-12:40pm followed by a $2.00 sandwich lunch.

May 3 – Church Nave

Zephyr Brass: Student Brass Quintet from Purdue University Fort Wayne

May 10 – Krauss Chapel

Songs from the Far East: Daniel Quinn, Guitar; Elaina Robbins, Voice

Donation Bins Moved — Please note that as you bring in items for Wellspring, WELCA or other donations, the brown bins are relocated to the west side of the gathering area. Thank you for your generosity!

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

May Sharing Care In-Kindness

Trinity English's City Ministry invites you to contribute in-kind donations to support our community neighbors. Questions should be directed to Janet Altmeyer by phone at 260.426.3424 or send an e-mail to JAltmeyer@TrinityEnglish.org.

Healthy snacks for Wellspring Summer Camp.

Congratulations Cole Droste! Recipient of the Frank R. Miser and Ruth Miser White 2019 Scholarship.

E3 Display May 5 and 12 - Plan to stop by and visit a photographic display of the various arts components experienced by this year's E3 students, age 5- grade 6, located on the west side side of the Gathering Area. Each of the activities connects arts with spiritual concepts, seeking to form the faith of these young lives. Along with regular choir activities, the purpose of E3 is to permit students to Explore, Experience, and Express Faith Through the Arts.

CHILDREN, YOUTH & JESUS — VBS Pre-K to 5th grade July 8 - 11 $0 cost, here at Trinity English, REGISTER! Middle School Mission Week grades 6th to 8th July 16th - 18th $75, overnight stay, Riverfront service project, TinCaps game; REGISTER! Splash Into Summer 2019! — Plan now to spend a little time after the 10 AM worship service on June 2 to take part in Trinity's "Splash into Summer!" event on the Washington Boulevard parking lot. (Please note: parking will be limited in that lot on that day). We'll have a tent and the Ziffle's Food Truck with special $5 lunches (including vegan and vegetarian options as well as kid's meals), and a chance to explore the many opportunities, programs and events we're planning for the summer months, for all ages. More details coming soon!

Mother's Day Trolley Tour — Trinity English will be opening our garden for people who want to take photographs with family during the Trolley Tour on Mother's Day. Downtown Fort Wayne is pleased to announce the return of its spring event for families of all ages to celebrate Mother's Day Downtown on Sunday, May 12 from 11:00a.m. – 5:00p.m. Free trolleys and event guides will connect you to great retail locations, restaurants, and Mother's Day themed activities around Downtown. To download the guide or for more information visit MothersDayDowntown.com

Trinity Men's Breakfast Club — Our next breakfast meeting is May 9th at 9am. Peggy Heinze from the Allen County Public Library will be joining us to talk about Robison Park. Yes Robison Park, I grew up always hearing it called Robinson Park but discovered last year that it was actually Robison Park. Peggy's talk will be very interesting and historical to say the least. Once again please let me know if you will be there as we need the numbers for meal planning. Please respond to Jeff Goshert at jeffgoshert6@gmail.com or call him at 260-433-4523. Remember spouses and friends are always welcome.
