Annual Meeting May 19 — The congregation is invited to attend the Annual Meeting, Sunday, May 19, in Wagenhals Hall, following the 11 AM worship service. Included in the business will be the election of members to the Church Council. The Church Council has approved the following slate:

Filling an unexpired term: Mallory Shupe
And any nominations from the floor.

Trinity Theatre Performance — Join us May 29 from 6-8 for a curated performance called "Art and the Mind." This performance will deal with some of the difficulties of depression, and is recommended for audiences 16 and older. Following the performance there will be a discussion with professionals about the relationship between the art and mental health.

Art Display — As a part of Trinity's focus on May's Mental Health Awareness month, local artist Tiny Clementine will have her newest piece #PostYourPills on display throughout the month of May. Please take some time to explore this work on the Wagenhals side of the Nave.

Fridays in May — From 12:10-12:40pm followed by a $2.00 sandwich lunch.
May 10 – Krauss Chapel

E3 Display — Please take a moment to visit the display on the west side of the gathering area which provides pictures of the various arts activities students worked on throughout the year. It was a great year, and we would love to share our E3 story with you!

Hospital Visits — Just a reminder: if you or a loved one is in the hospital or moves to a care facility, we certainly want to know about it! The new privacy laws, however, mean we get a lot less information "automatically" than we used to, so it's up to you to let us know where we can find you. Please call the church office whenever this type of 'change of venue' takes place, so we can be sure to connect with you.

FAREWELL: Emma has honorably served hundreds of infants & toddlers over the past several years in our Nursery. Emma heads to Chicago this summer for graduate school. We wish Emma all success and thank her for valuable service to infants, toddlers, and families.

Open Streets — Once again, the City is hosting Open Streets on Sunday, July 14. This year, Calhoun Street will be closed off 11-3 from downtown to the Williams Woodland Neighborhood. New this year is an emphasis on biking that day, with a bicycle parade kicking off the event. You are encouraged to decorate your bike and take part in the fun—we'll have details soon! Once again, Trinity pastors and volunteers will be part of the "blessing of the spokes & folks" as part of the day.
