

This Week at Trinity English

Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost | Thursday, September 12 and Sunday, September 15, 2019

Welcome to Trinity English

God's blessings to each of you! Activity bags are available at the doors for children—we always welcome your children to worship! A hearing loop is installed in both our Nave and Krauss Chapel and hearing assistance devices are available from an usher. If you are baptized you are welcome to communion. If you are seeking baptism, please speak with a pastor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Worship Times — Beginning THIS WEEK, Sunday, September 15, Trinity moves back to its Fall/Winter worship schedule. We will have services on Thursday evenings at 7 PM, Sunday at 8 AM, 9 AM and 11 AM, as well as the Trinity Unplugged service at 4:30 PM on Sundays.

Fridays in September — Fridays in September 12:10-12:40 p.m. followed by a ($2.00) sandwich lunch.

September 13th - Krauss Chapel: Brian Klickman, Cello

September 20th - Wagenhals Hall: Cole Burger, Piano

Family Ministries Lunch — This Sunday, September 15, 10:00 AM Seeds of Faith Gathering Area Family Ministries Program Preview! Family Ministries Programs start on Sunday, September 22. Pre-K through 5th Sunday School, Middle & High School Sunday School, Christians in Action, Grace @ the Movies, Interfaith Family Group, Middle School Youth Group, High School Youth Group, Family Retreat - JOIN US!

Community Dinner — Trinity has been offering a community dinner on Thursday evenings this summer, open to any of our members or neighbors who would like to enjoy a delicious meal together. Our volunteer chef is also one of the cooks at Catablu, who is intent on making healthy, hearty food for people. We have a group of dedicated volunteers who help coordinate and serve the dinner from 6-6:45 PM.

Congregational Dinner — Now that E³ is underway again, the congregational dinner for children, families, musicians and anyone else who is in the building for Wednesday night programming is back, too. We have confirmed with St. John's that they will continue to offer a community meal on Wednesdays 5:15- 5:45 so we can share that information with anyone who needs a meal on Wednesdays.

Wine & Wisdom — What's behind our dreams and nightmares? Wine & Wisdom's conversation will focus on the science behind the stories in our mind—Dreams and Nightmares! Women are invited to join us in the atrium at the downtown Hilton, Tuesday, September 17, 5:30-7:30 PM for real conversation and friendship over a beverage or dinner. It's a great way to learn more about ourselves and each other.

Guided Walk on the 22nd — If you're interested in seeing more of Trinity's downtown neighborhood up close and at street level, please join the guided walk on Sunday, September 22. Trinity friend Stephen J. Bailey will be leading a group on a one-hour walking tour of the nearby West Central neighborhood, with its historic commercial and residential houses and buildings. To join the walk, please meet at the Washington Blvd. entrance by 1:25 PM on the 22nd.

Welcome (back), Ally! — Trinity is pleased to welcome Alexandra (Ally) Presley in the role of Community Development Manager. Ally worked at TELC as an intern in the summer of 2017 She is a graduate of Homestead High School and Ball State University and has spent the past year or so as a leasing agent for a commercial real estate company. Ally will be coordinating the Thursday community dinners, God on Tap, and several other programs to help people inside and outside of Trinity connect with each other and with Jesus.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

September Sharing Care In-Kindness

WELCA Quilts & Kits — WELCA just received word that some of our Quilts, Personal Care Kits, and School Kits have been sent to Honduras. In part, the thank you letter stated, "Your quilts and kits provide important necessities to our neighbors around the world, and serve as reminders that they are not forgotten." Trinity members have two opportunities to be involved in the quilt making this fall. On Thursday, September 26th, we will be tying quilts from noon to 3:30 in Wagenhals Hall. On Sunday, October 13th, quilts and kits will be blessed during the worship services. At 10 o'clock in Wagenhals Hall, members can join Christians in Action to tie quilts. All completed quilts, personal care kits, and school kits will be taken to the Northeast Cluster In-gathering on Saturday, October 19th. They will be taken to the Lutheran World Relief warehouse in St. Paul Minnesota. From there they will be sent around the world.

WELCA Dinner — On Tuesday, October 8th, WELCA will be hosting a pasta dinner followed by a program with Trades Of Hope. Trades of Hope is a company working with third world artisans to providing opportunities to support themselves in countries where employment opportunities are limited. Angela Bidle will be sharing the stories behind some of the artisans. She will have craft items available that can be ordered. (in time for Christmas shopping)

5:30 Trades of Hope items available for browsing

6:00 pasta dinner

7:00 Angela telling the Trades of Hope story

8:00 additional shopping opportunity

Cost of evening is $10. Tickets will be on sale on September 22nd, 29th, and October 6th between church services or during the week through the church office.
